

2018 Citizen of the Year

Complete the form below to recommend your nomination for the JCCC 2018 Citizen of the Year. Remember that they MUST reside in Jefferson County and NOT be running for public office. The candidate must be a member of the JCCC, must own, or hold an upper management position in a small business (200 employees or less), and the business must be a non-governmental entity. Individuals currently running or serving for a paid elected office will not be considered. Also, you may submit additional letters of recommendation, and include additional pages as needed.

Describe the person and business you wish to nominate

Do they demonstrate "Staying Power"? How long have they been in business?

How has he/she transitioned the business to meet the needs of customers and demonstrated steady growth and increased volume?

Are they innovative? What makes this business different?

How has this person shown strong leadership?

Explain contributions to community service. Include organizations, civic and governmental service, youth groups, and social organizations.
